

Turtle Maldives

Omadhoo is one of the inhabited islands of Alif Dhaal Atoll in the Maldives. The island is about 74km southwest of the country's capital, Malé. According to the latest census conducted in 2018, the total population of Omadhoo is at 1089 out of which 840 are Maldivians, and above 150 foreigners. As of January 2018 there are nine guest house in Omadhoo. The guest houses provide the island with direct employment, and many other indirect economic benefits to the island. Most guest houses are funded by direct investments by local residents of the island. However, recently there have been investments by businessmen in Male' and elsewhere.

Guest houses provide various excursions, including: whale shark watching, manta rays, off island snorkeling, fishing, scuba diving, sand bank and picnic island visiting (including overnight staying). Omadhoo is served by combined one preschool and one primary/secondary school, Omadhoo School. Omadhoo is connected by ferry service from Malé. Some private companies provide scheduled speedboat service.

Set in Omadhoo, Turtle Maldives offers a terrace and free WiFi throughout the property. The units at the guest house feature air conditioning and a wardrobe ...

This guesthouse offers a series of activities like snorkelling, island hopping and sandbank excursions, romantic moonlight dinner, night fishing and many more....

